The Sempervirens Staff of the San Lorenzo Valley
Presents the Memories of 1961

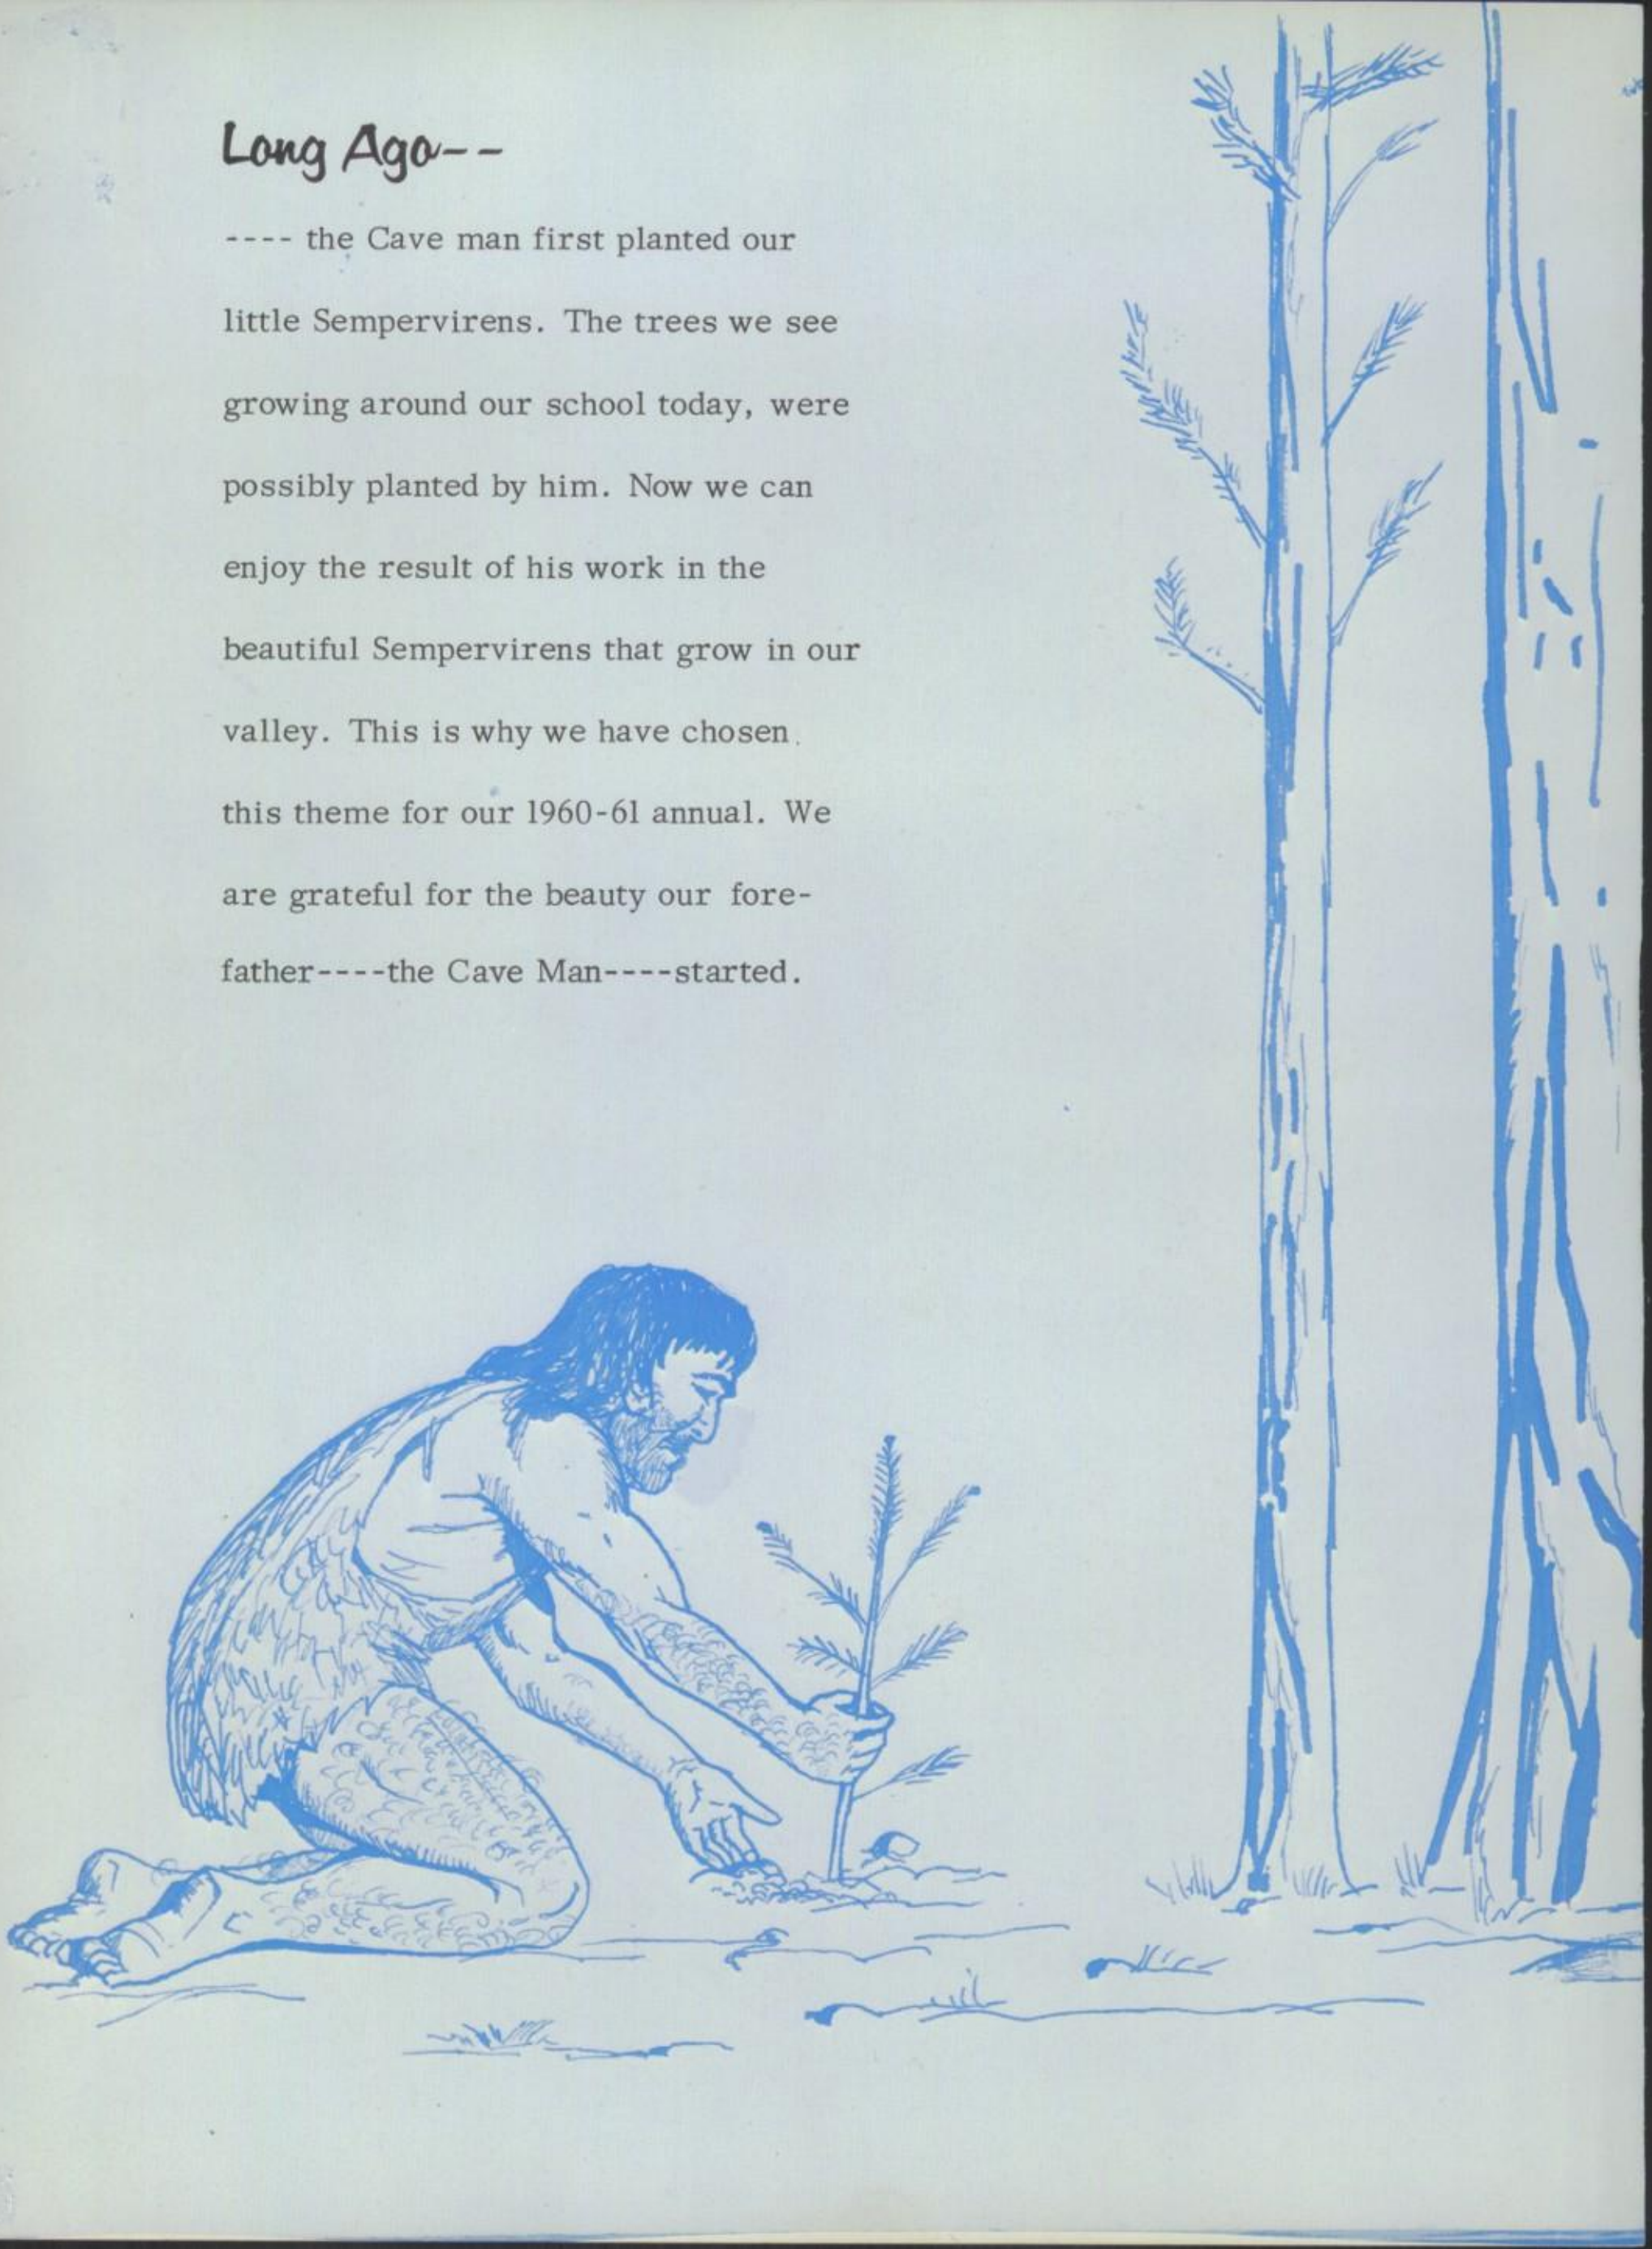
LV

Long Ago--

---- the Cave man first planted our little Sempervirens. The trees we see growing around our school today, were possibly planted by him. Now we can enjoy the result of his work in the beautiful Sempervirens that grow in our valley. This is why we have chosen this theme for our 1960-61 annual. We are grateful for the beauty our fore-father----the Cave Man----started.



Dedication

To

Grant Maynard

With Greatest Respect

----We dedicate our book to a man who has done outstanding work in student activities. He has made the Cougar Caboose an efficient store, and has been the advisor for all treasury transactions.

He has seen that the books are in order, bills are paid, and petty cash made. He has been our unofficial chaperon for school affairs, especially the winter snow trip, and he is on hand selling beans at the games.

And so, despite his full load of teaching, he has become indispensable in our school life.

These qualities, plus his excellent teaching, his reliability, his understanding of student behavior and misbehavior have made Mr. Maynard OUR MAN of the year.

Larry, you're a good Guy + Student + a great character
but - Be good
& get to work -
GMaynard -

The Admin

Superintendent----Mr. Wire

stands by the symbol of achievement
---- a well organized, smooth running high school.

Jerry Sessions

Maxine White

Ralph Nix

In the Office

Alta Tyler, Jo Oblak, Doris Stepka, and Grace Hicks kept things neat and orderly.

istration

Principal----Mr. Cartland

By skillful scheduling, he has kept double-sessions away from our crowded doors, and enabled us to have a full-day of classes and activities.

Earl F. Cartland

Bob Byington

Kay Hooper

The Councelors

Sooner or later, are visited by every student for help in schedules, programs, problems, graduation, and/or scholarships.

Bus Drivers

Scott King, Marjorie Chatten, M. E. McGowan, Art Bell, Tom Olson, Les Wellingham, Pearl Anderson, Glen Bilyeu, Irene Barringer, Walter DeMattos, Stanley Clebeck.

Cafeteria Workers

Bernice Staley, Florence Boykin, Orletta Hudson, Zelma Bell, Jesse Norris.

Teachers - Faculty

...What ever you call them, we have some good ones. Somehow they manage to look cheerful and gay in spite of long hours on the job. They have built up the scholastic standards of the school, and have worked hard with the classes, so that more and more students are learning more and more.

Shirley Forbes and Dan Varty view the world situation, while Ingebord Bilstad shows Colin Campbell how to run off tests.

Dorothea Jennings talks with Frank Hellenthal, Jr., Dave McGuire lets Louise Nix admire his work, as Matt Salmu and Carolyn Rhodes chuckle over a blooper on the faculty bulletin.

Preparing for a busy afternoon are Al Weimers, Virgil Ramponi, Ed Eggert, and Martin Feinberg, while Ernestine Sinnott shows Leonard Pattchen library procedures.

A slight pause
for Noah Adair
and Ethel Burge.

Wayne Richards and Preston Boomer ham
it up a little.

Glenn York discusses a fine point with
Melvin Kaitschuck.

The Music men, Jack
Taylor and Irvin Smith
take a break while Grant Maynard and
Alma Schreiber
pause between classes.

The Symbol of Activities

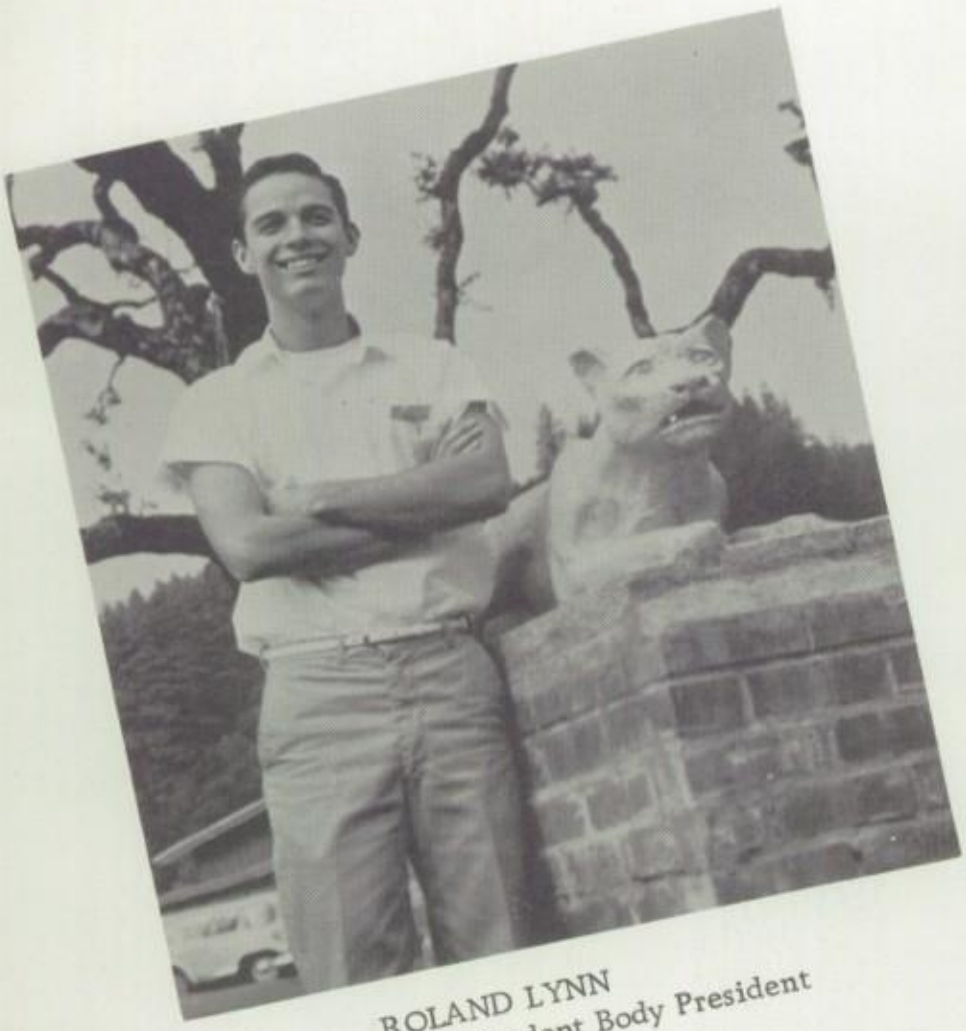
ACTIVITIES

An Active

Means an



ROLAND LYNN
Student Body President

Roland - started several new projects with the council, such as the school radio program, and painted garbage cans, and kept after campus clean-up and publicity.

With his good speaking voice and sense of humor he gave that extra touch to the rallies and assemblies.

He will be long remembered for his superior methods of banging the gavel.

The Busy

Commissioners

Classes Were Represented by

STANDING: Jon Wittwer-9th, Marilyn Tyler-12th, Ron Taylor 12th, Gaie Roberts-11th, Charles Beard, Marshall Milburn-11th, Pat Nicholson-9th.

SITTING: Cheryl Roberts-9th, and Carol Gallahan-10th.

Student Council

Active School

Active was the word. Our Student Council led us through a very successful school year. Their greatest accomplishment was the completion of the Constitution (at long last). They also sponsored many activities to better the school. The Christmas Dance and the Excitement of the Snow trip helped to round out a wonderful, rememberable school year.

COMMISSIONERS: Adrianne Helmer, Girl's Athletics; David Glass, Commissioner of Rallies; Bill Beardsley, Boy's Athletics; Dan Gouin, Student Store Manager; Lee Schumaker, Commissioner of Activities; and Toni McCloud, Commissioner of Publicity.

Our

Foreign Exchange

Student

A versatile and adaptable person, and a serious student, Chris quickly adopted our ways, adjusted to our fads and fancies, held a top place in classes, and made herself a part of our school and our activities.

In the snaps we see little Chris on a hike in Germany, at here abroad with the Carl Connelly's, chatting by the Cougar, and as a member of the American Committee with Pat Appley, Roland Lynn, Martha Wallig, Beth Gerdes, Gordon DeMoe, and Nina Staley.

This committee will pick our candidate for overseas study from among Bev Keenan, Linda Thommason, Candy Golnik, and Nancy Gallahan and (absent from picture) Sue Page and Sally Rawson.

Some Clubs Aim at Service

.... To promote school spirit and build better rallies; to act as a central buying agent; and to make the library useful to the students.

I expect great things of you - Don't be afraid to take leips in your hands and do something with it - Much luck. but more than that. Courage & Best wishes

The Mighty Seniors!

On the platform at Graduation solemn seniors in cap and gown think back over the many events that had taken place over the past year. Scenes raced through their minds. Leaving for lunch with only a car-sticker as a pass---A classmate coming to the front to lead the flag salute---Underclassmen waiting for the "seniors" to leave first. The long rides on the rooters bus---The crowning of the Football Queen---The planning committee organizing the coming activities---Learning to take notes in Wiemers classes---

The drive out to Aptos for the Winter Formal---Mid-Term exams---Our first CAA Basketball Princess---The Girls Jamboree with the seniors victorious---The Snow Trip with sprained ankles, bruises, and cold noses---The bat boys chasing down stray baseballs---The gym full of quiet kids taking tests, with Miss White handing out pencils---Chris adding notes to the diary of her year here---

Mr. Maynard trying to keep the cake sales money straight---The senior boys shining shoes---The track men practicing night after night---The wild times at the Boys Jamboree---The beautifully lighted Japanese Garden at the Jr. Sr. Prom---The "real sneaky" sneak day---Study sessions at the beach---The secrecy of the Class Gift---and finally the choice of a dress for the Graduation Party.

The Juniors!

The Busiest Class --

(in their Estimation)

Raked in the yenom with a car wash, a couple of cool dances, and the never to be forgotten carnival booth. All of this action led up to the big event of the year--the traditional Junior Senior Prom.

Sophomores!

Slavery Caused a Riot---

of fun, that is----when the Sophomores came up with the bright idea of raising money by selling slaves.

Led by a live wire group of officers this class increased their treasury, added to school spirit, bolstered all school teams, and kept the C. S. F. perking.

ABOVE: Class advisor, Robert Byington, prefers chatting with girls, while the boys seem to prefer being alone.

L. Taylor,

Regardless of the final record, the Varsity squad had a good season, for they never gave up. This never-yielding attitude is what made it such a good season. Four of the five starters will be back next year. Several reserves moved up and gained enough experience to be considered as starting men for next years squad.
